Racine Christian Bake Sale for Haiti

Racine Christian School 6th grade students Bradley Minger, Joshua Gee, James Ryback, Natalee Brzack, and Kellie Friesema display Haiti bake sale items for 5th grader Adrianna Westplate (on left).

Racine Christian School 6th grade students recently held a bake sale to raise money for earthquake victims in Haiti.

By selling home-made treats to students and staff at the school, 6th graders raised $350. The money was sent to Haiti via the Red Cross.

Principal Dave VanSwol says, “Thanks to teacher Mary Elliott for sponsoring this project. It’s an important part of Christian education to learn and care about people in other parts of our world, and to sacrifice of our time and money to help them in times of trouble.”

Racine Christian offers excellence in Christian education to K-8th grade students from 40 area churches. Further information is available from Dave VanSwol at 262/634-0961 or www.RacineChristianSchool.com
