Racine Christian School Girls Win Sportsmanship Award

The Racine Christian School Girls' A Squad Basketball Team was presented the Girls' Sportsmanship Award by the Wisconsin Christian School Association at this year's Tournament in Sheboygan. Each year, the award is presented to a team displaying outstanding Christian character, behavior, and spirit.

Principal Dave Van Swol says, "Thanks to Coach Michelle Porcaro for leading our Girls' Basketball A Squad. They played with skill and also with good Christian ethics, teamwork, and grace – whether winning or losing. Congratulations to this outstanding team!"

Racine Christian provides Christian education, outstanding academics, and a full range of extra-curricular offerings to families in Racine. Further information is available from Dave Van Swol at 262/634-0961 or www.RacineChristianSchool.com
